ID	Control Name	Control Description	Requirements	Rule Name
PW.5.1	Secure coding practices	Follow all secure coding practices that are appropriate to the development languages and environment to meet the organization's requirements.	SDLC Policy Document - when and how to perform code review and code analysis, methods selection per SDLC stage.	SDLC Policy Document available and valid
PW.5.1	Secure coding practices	Follow all secure coding practices that are appropriate to the development languages and environment to meet the organization's requirements.	Code Review Records - developers reviewed their own code, and an additional review by a person or an automated tool was also performed.	Verify PR evidence - at least one approver that isn't the commiter
PW.5.1	Secure coding practices	Follow all secure coding practices that are appropriate to the development languages and environment to meet the organization's requirements.	Vulnerability analysis is performed before production promotion	Critical CVE with CVSS score between 9.0 and 10.0 (skip if not applicable) + VEX Generated
PW.5.1	Secure coding practices	Follow all secure coding practices that are appropriate to the development languages and environment to meet the organization's requirements.	Issue tracking records for code review findings - root causes, remediations, lessons learned accessible to developers.	Verify Jira Evidence
PW.5.1	Secure coding practices	Follow all secure coding practices that are appropriate to the development languages and environment to meet the organization's requirements.	Secure Coding Standards Document - secure coding practices for the development languages in use, including input validation, output encoding, unsafe functions, error handling, and logging.	Secure Coding Standards Document available and valid